Anagram Riddles
Anagrams are words that contain the same letters but are arranged in a different order.

An Example: Arm and Ram are anagrams

Read the given clues and try to guess the anagrams.

Once you have guessed the answer move to the next slide to reveal the correct answer.
A short sleep during the day. Something to cook with.
Nap

Pan
Something you bake.

Hair on your face.
Bread  Beard
An animal that people ride.

The place where land meets sea.
A place to see art.

Something that makes you sneeze.
Another word for jump.

Another word for white.
Leap

Pale
An animal that lives in a pack.
Move like water.
A dog's feet.

An insect that stings.
A place to wash dishes.

What covers your body.
A sour fruit.
A juicy fruit.
What superheroes wear. A place to see stars and planets.
Capes

Space
A time when things are cheap.

A marine mammal.
Sale

Seal
Things people wear in the winter. Where land meets the sea.
Coats

Coast
Something you hear with.

A period of time.
Something used to water plants.  A thing you put on your foot.
Hose

Shoe
A body of water.

Where water drips from the ceiling.
The opposite of far.

Receive money for working.
Near  Earn
Trees with cones. Another word for backbone.
Minutes and hours.  A thing on a list.
Things you hammer.

A mollusk with a shell on its back.
Nails

Snail
A piece of beef.

A shoe for ice.
Steak

Skate
Not as hard.

A place where many trees grow.
Softer

Forest
Another word for gift.

A large snake or a dragon.
Present

Serpent
A piece of something.  Something used to catch things.
Something extra.

A long sharp weapon.
Spare

Spear
A boy or a man.

Something you eat.
Male

Meal
A seasoning. The opposite of first.
Salt

first

Last

last
The past tense of win.

Have belongings.
Resources

https://bogglesworld esl.com/Anagrams.htm