

Name That Tune - Hymns Edition

the deep-est sea,

God is able to make all things abundant toward you.

Amazing Grace!

200

Traditional American melody
ARR. BY EDWIN O. EXCELL

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound
That saved my soul and grace
That brought me from the deep-est sea,
My wretched life to thee.
Wretch like me!
I once was blind, but now I see,
'Twas grace that brought me here today,
Which taught my heart to fear,
And grace which taught my heart to fear,
And grace which saved my soul from
The dire distress that lies
Awaiting those whose hearts are strange
To feel the sweet, sweet love of God,
Which taught my heart to fear,
And grace which saved my soul from
The dire distress that lies
Awaiting those whose hearts are strange
To feel the sweet, sweet love of God.

wretch like me!
I once was blind, but now I see,
'Twas grace that brought me here today,
Which taught my heart to fear,
And grace which saved my soul from
The dire distress that lies
Awaiting those whose hearts are strange
To feel the sweet, sweet love of God.

Guess the Hymn

This hymn is a Christian hymn published in 1779, with words written in 1772 by the English poet and Anglican clergyman John Newton. He wrote the words from personal experience.

Here are a few lyrics:

- _____ how sweet the sound,
- That saved a wretch; like me!
- I once was lost, but now am found,
- Was blind, but now I see.

Guess the Hymn

This is a Christian hymn based on a Swedish traditional melody and a poem written by Carl Boberg in 1885.

Here are a few lyrics:

- O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder
- Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made
- I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
- Thy power throughout the universe displayed

A serene sunset scene over a calm body of water. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow that reflects on the water's surface. The sky transitions from a deep orange near the horizon to a soft blue at the top. The text is centered in the upper half of the image in a white, sans-serif font.

And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing;

Guess the Hymn

This hymn was composed in 1933 by Alfred Henry Ackley. The hymn discusses the experience claimed by Christians that Jesus Christ lives within their hearts.

Here are a few lyrics:

- God sent his son,
- They call him Jesus
- He came to live, heal and forgive

A landscape photograph featuring a vibrant green field in the foreground and a blue sky with wispy white clouds in the background. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a soft glow. The text is overlaid in a bold, black, serif font.

And then one day
I'll cross the river
I'll fight life's final war with pain.

Guess the Hymn

This hymn has been a country gospel favorite ever since it was the title song on Ernest Tubb's 1952 gospel album. It has been performed by some of the 20th century's most important artists including Alan Jackson.

Here are a few lyrics:

- On a hill far away stood an
_____
- The emblem of suffering and shame
- And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
- For a world of lost sinners was slain

A large, simple wooden cross stands on a grassy hill. The background is a dramatic sunset sky with orange, pink, and purple clouds. The foreground shows a green field with a fence line.

I will cling to the old rugged cross

Guess the Hymn

This is a well-known hymn written by Charlotte Elliott in 1835. This hymn first appeared in the Christian Remembrancer.

Here are a few lyrics:

- _____, without one plea
- But that thy blood was shed for me,
- And that Thou bidd'st me come to Thee,
- O Lamb of God, I come, I come

*To Thee whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!*

Guess the Hymn

This hymn is also known as “Beautiful Savior”. It was also called the “Crusader’s Hymn” because it was sung by German Crusaders while they made their way to the Holy Land.

Here are a few lyrics:

- Fair are the meadows, fairer still the woodlands
- Robed in the blooming garb of spring
- Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer
- Who makes the woeful heart to sing

Fair is the sunshine, Fairer still the moonlight,
And all the twinkling starry host

Guess the Hymn

This hymn is a gospel written by C. Austin Miles. The song was first published in 1912. This hymn is based on John 20:14.

Here are a few lyrics:

- And He walks with me, and He talks with me,
- And He tells me I am His own,
- And the joy we share as we tarry there,
- None other has ever known.

And
he walks with me
And
he talks with me

Guess the Hymn

This is a Christian hymn written by Reginald Heber. Its lyrics speak specifically to the Holy Trinity. In a poll conducted by the Hymn Society, this hymn was selected as the greatest hymn of all time.

Here are a few lyrics:

- _____! Lord God Almighty!
- All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Guess the Hymn

This hymn is a well-known Christian hymn. The lyrics were written by Fanny Crosby to the music written by Phoebe Knapp in 1873.

Here are a few lyrics:

- This is my story, this is my song,
- praising my Savior, all the day long;
- this is my story, this is my song,
- praising my Savior all the day long.

I in my Savior am happy and blest

Guess the Hymn

This hymn was written by Eugene Bartlett. The hymn is an optimistic reminder of the hope of heaven.

Here are a few lyrics:

- _____,
- My Savior, forever.
- He sought me and bought me
- With His redeeming blood;
- He loved me ere I knew Him
- And all my love is due Him,
- He plunged me to victory,
- Beneath the cleansing flood.

New Songs with Familiar Lyrics

Now that we have completed the “Name That Tune”, let’s listen to some contemporary Christian songs that may not sound as familiar but may capture some of the familiar lyrics that we know from the original hymns.

A person is shown from behind, standing on a dark silhouette of a hill or ground. Their arms are raised in a gesture of prayer or praise, with hands held together. The background is a bright, hazy sunset or sunrise, with a glowing sun partially obscured by clouds. The overall mood is one of spiritual freedom and joy.

A silhouette of a person stands on a dark, elevated surface, possibly a cliff or a hill, with their arms raised in a gesture of praise or surrender. The background is a dramatic sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon, casting a bright glow and reflecting on the water. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and purple. The overall mood is one of hope, faith, and acceptance.

And on that day
when my strength is failing
The end draws near and my time has come
